Enlightenment which human is seeking from generations, these souls are already liberated one and have come on Earth to take us in the era of divinity. If you are a alone parent, & feel unheard or unaccepted then this is definitely for you.

Understanding Life

Universe is all pervading, so is the creation; Cosmos is all creating, so are the beings; Consciousness is all evolving, so is the life. This whole universe is comprised of energy, matter and void, so we are. Universal flow and existence is unified but as the word describes itself as union, it is the beautiful union of different eternal energies, elements, entities in ether; how can we say God is one - God is union, union of us all, Union of this whole creation, union of whatever comprise this Universe-Youniverse-YOU, US, All. Think of our solar system as one big body. As (Gaia) Mother Earth being the womb of our solar system, her consciousness is rising, rising to take her power back lost in ages, rising to attain beauty again as a whole body (Earth). Now we have to decide what we want to become, a useful, selfless cell/organ of her beautiful body who facilitate each other for a better functioning of a whole system - or just some notorious cell who team up to create cancer in her body.

Expanding Perception is the Key.

There is a saying in bible, God created Hue-mans in mirror image; we understand God according to our inner image.

We all are caged from ages in our own fake world of identities, ideologies, standards, society, relationship, body, conscious circles, conditioning cycles, ancestral mythology, ancient beliefs many more cages ... Seeking for a key thinking we are locked. Here comes the perception - may be we are not locked by any external forces, may be what look like a cage is the key itself, may be there is no lock, it is just our mind which is not aligned with universal flow that's why we are not able to decode. Lets embark on a 6-day Celebration retreat which is the first step of the 28 days transformative discourse where you Cleanse & Open the eternal energy of the elements with the enlarged perspective view of masculine and feminine aspects of a body, mind and soul, unifying wisdom & aligning chakras, creating new YOU with love & gratitude so as all aspects of YOU connect with the YOUNIVERSAL Flow of energy to experience RainbowLand Consciousness.....A beautiful world of imagination of our children.

"Within Purush lies the seed of creation –
Within Prakrati lies the power to create, nurture, and transform."

" Wisdom lies in UNION "

As we all are evolving we can feel the beauty of creation, Since time immemorial bhraMan is carrying the seed of creation & consciousness of a Father (Creator) & womBen have held the secrets of the COSMOS as they carry the womb of universe, creating & nurturing life around them with love. As Earth being the womb of our solar system we all are her kids who embody the strength and resilience of Earth elements Soil, Water, Fire, Air, and Sky , to connect with the universal flow of these energies we need to cleanse the elements of which our body is made of.
